

5th International FESTEM Congress

Trace Elements in Avignon FESTEM
Bridging between New Advances and Public Health Issues
Avignon France - 22 to 24 May 2013

Preliminary program

Wednesday May 22

Opening ceremony

Pr B Michalke FESTEM President
Dr I Hininger-Favier SFERETE President

Gabriel Bertrand award (Plenary lecture)

Dr RA Anderson (USA)

Chromium in human health

Session 1 Morning

Trace elements and nutritional needs in Humans

Pr J Nève (Belgium):

Evolution of recommendations, benefits, risks and policy of supplementation.

Pr A Shenkin (UK):

Trace Elements in parenteral and enteral nutrition.

Session 2 Afternoon.

Advances for trace elements assessment.

Pr E Urrechaga (Spain):

New parameters for iron functional deficiency assessment.

Pr B Michalke (Germany):

Trace Elements speciation in brain.

Poster session 1.

Session 3 Afternoon.

Trace elements and mitochondrial function.

Pr S Sensi (Italy):

Zinc and mitochondria dysfunction

Thursday May 23.

Session 4 Morning.

Trace elements in inherited disorders.

Dr S Vaulont (France):

New advances in hemochromatosis

Dr JM Trocello (France):

Eurowilson, an European network for Wilson disease.

Session 5 Morning.

Trace elements in childhood.

Pr CW Levenson (USA):

Role of zinc during infancy in mental and physical growth

Session 6 Afternoon.

Trace elements in ageing .

Pr J Köhrle (Germany):

Trace Elements and thyroid function in ageing

Dr E Mocchegiani (Italy):

Trace element importance for neuroprotection and inflammation

Poster session 2.

Friday May 24.

Session 7 Morning.

Trace elements in animals

Dr D Grandjean (France):

Trace elements needs and deficiencies in pets.

Dr EA Sizova (Russia):

Biological effects of metals nanoparticles in animal model

Session 8 Morning.

Trace elements in Dermatology.

Pr MT Leccia (France):

Trace elements and skin protection.

Session 9 Afternoon .

Trace elements in environment.

Pr JM^a Ibarluzea Maurologoitia (Spain):

Heavy metals in public health issues

Closing ceremony

Pr B Michalke FESTEM President

Dr I Hininger-Favier SFERETE President